The Pastor’s Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Octave Day of Christmas Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God: We close out the Christmas octave, the eight days following the birth of Christ, with a day in honoring Mary as the Mother of God. “Redeemed by reason of the merits of her Son and united the Son of God, by which account she is also the beloved daughter of the Father and the temple of the Holy Spirit. Because of this gift of sublime grace she far surpasses all creatures, both in heaven and on earth. At the same time, however, because she belongs to the offspring of Adam she is one with all those who are to be saved.” (Lumen Gentium, no. 53) Today’s Feast of Mary is an appropriate way to begin a new year, reminding us to rely on the truly powerful intercession of our Heavenly Mother. Additionally the Church observes January 1 as the World Day of Peace. Pope Francis asks that in 2023 “we journey together, valuing the lessons that history has to teach us.”

Parishioner David Collinsworth: I am very pleased to announce that , David Collinsworth, recently received the Ministry of Lector at Saint Joseph Cathedral. Bishop Earl Fernandes conferred this ministry at the 5:15 PM Mass on December 18 along with eleven other deacon-candidates in formation for the Sacrament of Holy Orders. He will be entering his second year of candidacy; his internship will take place at the Church of the Resurrection in New Albany. I encourage you to please keep Dave, his wife Jane, and their family in your prayers.

Staying Informed: I send a weekly email about upcoming events and parish news to those parishioners who have acquired Flocknote. Flocknote is an easy way to stay connected with our parish family. If you do not have Flocknote, I ask that you please consider obtaining it. It’s quite simple to sign-up for Flocknote; just go to stpacc.org/flocknote

Our Sunday Offering: Many have found that WeShare Online is an easy, secure, and convenient platform. Text stpaulohio to 800-950-9952 or give online at stpacc.org/donate. For those who prefer to use their offertory envelopes and may be unable to attend Mass, donations can be mailed directly to St. Paul Church, 313 N. State Street, Westerville, Ohio 43082. Thank you.

I wish you and yours a happy and peaceful New Year!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Wilson

Gloria

Glorify to God in the highest, and on earth peace to peoples of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God,

Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

Through Baptism we are called to be followers of Christ, to be His disciples. Consider taking a little time at the start of the New Year to examine your life and determine how well you are answering your call to discipleship.

† Do I pray regularly?
† Do I listen to God or do I do all the talking? (God speaks to us through scripture, through others and in the silence of our hearts.)
† Do my prayers focus on discovering God’s will more than expressing my needs?
† When making decisions, do I seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit?
† Is my relationship with Christ motivated more by love than duty or fear?
† Do my actions demonstrate a desire to build God’s kingdom rather than my own?
† Do I forgive others as God forgives me?
† Do I admit my errors in relationships and humbly seek forgiveness from those I’ve hurt?
† Am I gentle and kind and patient in my interactions with others?
† Do I encourage others by pointing out their strengths rather than criticizing their weaknesses?
† Do my time commitments demonstrate that I value relationships over work/career/hobbies?
† Do I share my faith in Christ with others?
† When confronted about my faith, do I remain consistent and firm in defending it?
† Do I profess my faith through both my words and actions?
† Do I recognize the gifts I have been given and use them to serve others?
† Do I help others to identify their gifts and encourage them to use them to serve God and others?
† Do I serve others expecting nothing in return?
† Do I sacrificially contribute my treasure to support my church and community?
† Do I go out of my way to show God’s love to the people I meet?
† Do I live the Gospel?
† Do I live Jesus?

Connecting the Word of God to Our Lives

Reflecting on Today’s Gospel...
The Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, January 1

Mary gives birth in a barn or stable and the shepherds come to see her Child. They leave singing praises. Mary ponders and reflects and treasures all these things that happen to her. She is our model in so many ways. Here, Mary is the first follower of Jesus, the first disciple. And the example she sets, the model she gives through her actions is that a follower of Jesus takes time to reflect on life’s events. A true disciple believes that there is meaning and mystery in daily life.

What value would you find in following Mary’s example of reflection?

How will you schedule time in the upcoming new year to truly listen and pause to reflect on God’s word?

Preparing for Next Sunday...
The Epiphany of the Lord, January 8

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6  Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6  Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

The Second Vatican Council wrote, “Christ is the light of all nations.” Today we hear about wise men who traveled a great distance to see Jesus. Finding Him, they offered Him gifts as the Lord of the Universe. Epiphany means appearance. This feast celebrates God appearing as Jesus to the whole world. God appears so that we all may see.

What have you done to carry the light of Christ to others recently?

The three wise men worked hard to find Jesus, and we are asked to do the same. What are some ways you have found Jesus in your life?

Who can you help to find Jesus?

And let it begin with me
"The world must be educated to love Peace, to build it up and defend it." With these words, Pope Paul VI in 1968 called us each to personal responsibility for keeping the peace. Since then, successive popes have related the quest for peace to fighting poverty, protecting creation, defeating racism, caring for migrants, supporting education, ensuring opportunities to work, and overcoming indifference. As the pandemic bloomed, Pope Francis described peace as cultivating a "culture of care." Building peace includes encountering people outside our typical social cocoons. It necessarily involves creating good politics and living with hope. Make peace your personal priority.

OCTAVE DAY OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD; SOLEMNITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD
TODAY'S READING: Numbers 6:22-27; Galatians 4:4-7; Luke 2:16-21 (18). "The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!"

Spirituality is a friendly endeavor
Is there anyone you regard as a "spiritual friend"? Someone with whom you share your Christian journey and who helps you grow in faith? Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen were two such friends who were monks together for a while and later both became bishops. They lived in a time—the fourth century—when there was great conflict and heresy, and the pair worked to keep the church united on the right path. Gregory wrote of their friendship: "We seemed to be two bodies with a single spirit.... Our single object and ambition was virtue, and a life of hope in the blessings that are to come...." If it's true that you are the company you keep, choose wisely!

MEMORIAL OF BASIL THE GREAT AND GREGORY NAZIANZEN, BISHOPS, DOCTORS OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 2:22-28; John 1:19-28 (205). "Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us?"

The name above all others
The Most Holy Name of Jesus occurs in early January to signify the eight days since Jesus’ birth—when, as a Jew, he was presented in the Temple and given a name. As the Bible reminds us, an angel told Joseph: "You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." Today is also the main feast day of the Jesuit religious order, as their name derives from Jesus’ name. Celebrate as suggested by today’s most famous Jesuit, Pope Francis: "It means thinking like him, loving like him, seeing like him, walking like him. It means doing what he did and with his same sentiments."

MEMORIAL OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 2:25-3:6; John 1:29-34 (206). "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."

Stand firm for justice
Today, the church celebrates the feast of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first person born in the future United States to be canonized, and the de facto founder of America’s Catholic school system. Seton was also a voice of reason in a time of rampant contradiction in the realm of human rights. Though her family owned slaves, Seton apparently rejected the practice and spoke lovingly of African Americans. Though her order did not protest the practice, and in some cases benefitted from the labor of enslaved individuals themselves, recent studies have found no evidence that Seton herself ever engaged in the practice—a rarity for her time and social class. Let’s pray that a spirit of holy resistance will fill us all in the fight against injustice—in a world where up to 50 million people live in modern slavery.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH ANN SETON, RELIGIOUS
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 3:7-10; John 1:35-42 (207). "The person who acts in righteousness is righteous, just as he is righteous."

Live and learn—and pass it on
Education was of supreme importance to both Saint John Neumann (1811-60), who is memorialized today, and to scientist and devout Christian George Washington Carver, who died on Jan. 5, 1943. Both men obtained an education long before it was seen as a birthright. Both made enormous social contributions as a result: Neumann to faith development of the masses; Carver to applied agricultural science impacting the country in numerous ways. For them, cleverness was never an end in itself; they both believed their talents were given by God to serve others. How does your education serve others?

MEMORIAL OF JOHN NEUMANN, BISHOP
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 3:11-21; John 1:43-51 (208). "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel."

The door will be opened
Born frail and weak in 1845 near Montreal and orphaned at 12 when both parents died, André Bessette tried a number of trades as a young man, none with much success. He was initially turned away when applying to the Congregation of Holy Cross but was finally accepted and given the humble task of doorkeeper, messenger, and laundry worker at Notre Dame College in Montreal. There he faithfully served for decades. His life of devotion and healing presence eventually attracted legions of visitors and 80,000 prayer requests mailed in each year. When I joined this community, the superiors showed me the door, and I remained 40 years;” he quipped near the end of his long life. Make yours a life of simple service and devotion—and a sense of humor won’t hurt either!

MEMORIAL OF ANDRÉ BESSETTE, RELIGIOUS
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 5:5-13; Mark 1:7-11 or Luke 3:23-28 or 3:23, 31-34, 36, 38 (209). "I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals."

Signs of life
All that water at the wedding feast of Cana was used, the story tells us, for “Jewish ceremonial washings.” Such washings were prescribed by the Jewish Halakha, or body of laws derived from the Torah. The fact that Jesus turned pure water for cleansing into wine for drinking would have sent a powerful message of the true nature of “living water” to the wedding guests. That same message is transmitted to us as simple table wine becomes the blood of Christ at every Eucharist. Like the wedding guests at Cana, don’t hesitate to drink deeply from the cup of life Jesus offers.

CHRISTMAS WEEKDAY
TODAY'S READING: 1 John 5:14-21; John 2:1-11 (210). "Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory.”

It’s true! Thanks to a state law passed in 2021, Ohio taxpayers now are eligible to receive a tax credit for qualified donations to our scholarship granting organization (SGO), the Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund! Donors receive a dollar-for-dollar credit (not deduction) on their Ohio income tax liability of up to $750 or $1,500 if married, filing jointly.

Why? The Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund was established to help make an authentic Catholic education affordable and accessible for all families in our Catholic Diocese of Columbus.

The law effectively gives you the power to direct your tax dollars to support Our Catholic Schools’ efforts to lead children to an encounter with Jesus Christ and change lives. It’s a win-win for all involved if you pay taxes to the State of Ohio – and you probably do!

Can this Tax Credit Benefit You?

Every person’s situation is unique but, if your year-over-year tax circumstances haven’t changed significantly, you may be eligible to receive the tax credit by making a contribution to the Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund. The easiest place to start is by reviewing your most recent Ohio Income Tax Return. Then, follow these three, easy steps.

1. Pull your prior year return

   The form you’ll need to review is Ohio IT 1040.

2. Review line 8c on page 2

   This is your total income tax liability before credits, or what the state says you owe as a taxpayer.

3. Is line 10 greater than $0.00?

   If so, you can reduce this liability on a dollar-for-dollar basis with a gift to the Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund, up to $750 or $1,500 if married and filing jointly.

Parish Hospitality Ministry – Request for Volunteers

Our parish is in need of 3-4 parishioner volunteers to help establish a Hospitality Ministry. This ministry will own the stocking and organizing the kitchen in the lower level of the Church, as well as the kitchenette in the St. Peter Room. Organizational skills are key as this ministry will keep the kitchen areas in good order and the closets fully stocked with various paper products, cups, glasses, and non-perishables for use by all of our many parish ministries. The main goal of this ministry is to streamline the organization of the kitchens and the stocking of materials. We anticipate this will require about 5 hours/month per volunteer.

Ministries that use the kitchens will be responsible for contacting the Hospitality Ministry when they are in need of supplies. Hospitality volunteers will gather the supply requests, purchase the various supplies, and replenish the kitchens. All receipts can be brought to the Parish Office for reimbursement.

If you are interested in learning more about our plans for the Hospitality Ministry, please contact Andrew Burson, Director of Pastoral Ministry, RCIA & Liturgy, at (614) 882-2109 ext. #228 or Aburson@stpacc.org.

Thank you!
