Choir Anthem Lyrics

Off. Anthem – I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath

I'll praise my Maker while I've breath,
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler pow'rs;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life and thought and being last,
Or immortality endures.

The Lord pours eyesight on the blind;
The Lord supports the fainting mind;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless.
He sends the lab'ring conscience peace;
And grants the pris'ner sweet release.

Happy are they whose hopes rely
On Israel's God, He made the sky
And earth and seas with all their train:
His truth forever stands secure;
He saves th' oppressed, He feeds the poor,
And none shall find His promise vain.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below
Praise Him above ye heavenly host.
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Canticle of Praise – O Salutaris Hostia

O salutaris Hostia, Quae caeli pandis ostium:
Bella premunt hostilia, Da robur, fer auxilium.

Uni trinoque Domino Sit sempiterna gloria,
Qui vitam sine termino Nobis donet in patria. Amen.

*O saving Victim, who opens the gate of heaven,
Hostile wars press on; give us strength, bear us aid.*

To the One and Threefold Lord, may there be eternal glory; Who may give us eternal life in the Fatherland.

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

Why does he allow this?

If you have ever lost someone close to you, suffered through a disease or any illness, you more than likely asked the question, "Why is this happening?" "Why am I in such anguish?" "Why are bad things happening to me?" Throughout my career working with those who are not Catholic and those who are becoming Catholic, there is one issue that is a struggle to grasp. How can an all-powerful, all-loving God allow his creation to suffer? Can't God take away our pain and suffering?

Suffering is a profound and inevitable aspect of the human experience, also known as free will. It is a topic that has puzzled minds and stirred hearts for centuries. As we grapple with the complexities of pain and adversity, we often turn to our faith in God for solace and understanding. In moments of suffering, it is natural to question the presence of a benevolent and all-powerful God. We may wonder why a loving Creator would allow us to endure pain, loss, and hardship. These questions are not signs of weak faith but rather expressions of the depth of our humanity.

C.S. Lewis (and Peter Kreeft), a renowned Christian author and philosopher, offers some insights in his book "The Problem of Pain." In a world filled with suffering and challenges, Lewis grapples with the age-old question: If God is good and all-powerful, why does he allow pain and suffering? One key point Lewis makes is that pain serves as a megaphone to rouse a deaf world. It is easy to become complacent in our faith in our moments of comfort and ease. However, when pain enters our lives, it acts as a powerful instrument to grab our attention and draw us closer to God. It becomes a wake-up call, prompting us to seek more profound meaning and understanding. Job, for example, experienced the loss of his family, wealth, and health. Yet, through it all, he clung to his faith, ultimately finding renewal and a deeper understanding of God's mysterious ways.

Lewis argues it's through the crucible of suffering that our true selves emerge. Like a skillful artist sculpting a masterpiece, God uses the chisel of pain to mold us into vessels of grace and compassion. While acknowledging the mystery of suffering, Lewis encourages us to trust in God's goodness. He reminds us that our understanding is limited, and God's ways are beyond our comprehension. The cross of Christ stands as a testament to the redemptive power of suffering. In the crucifixion, we see the ultimate example of God entering into the depths of human pain to bring about salvation.

God does not promise a life free from hardship but offers companionship and grace during our trials. Our faith is refined in the crucible of suffering, and our dependence on God deepens. As St. Paul wrote, "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us" (Romans 8:18).

We are invited to draw near to God through suffering, seeking comfort and strength in prayer. It is a time to reflect on the transient nature of worldly pain and the enduring nature of God's love. In our brokenness, we discover the transformative power of God's mercy and the hope of a future where tears will be wiped away and pain will be no more.

As we navigate the valleys of suffering, let us remember that God is present even in the darkest moments. Our faith is not a shield against tribulations but a lantern that guides us through them. May we find solace in the assurance that God, in His infinite wisdom, is working all things together for our good.

We must lift our hearts in prayer, seeking God's guidance and strength as we journey through the trials of life. May we find comfort in the knowledge that, in the tapestry of our existence, God weaves threads of purpose and redemption through our experiences of suffering.

Opportunities to Serve

Altar Linens Ministry Help Needed!

We are looking for one to two people interested in helping out with cleaning and ironing the altar linens, corporals, and other linens used during mass. No experience is required, you will be trained. Commitment is one month per year. Please contact Amy San Filippo at sanfilippo_amy@yahoo.com for more information.

SVDP Pantry Collection

The St. Paul SVDP Conference will be having their monthly pantry collection next weekend, February 10 and 11. The blue bins will be in the Narthex of the church on Friday, February 9 until after the 5:00 Mass on Sunday, February 11.

These donations are taken to Holy Family where the homeless and those in need are served Monday thru Friday with a hot lunch and a bagged meal of two sandwiches, a salty snack, a sweet snack and a bottle of water. Also, if available, fruit. Holy Family can always use snack crackers, fruit cups, small individual size toiletry items and flip top cans of fruit, vegetables, soup and pasta. Large bags of cookies, pretzels, oyster crackers and soda crackers are divided into individual snack bags by volunteers.

The St. James the Less Food Pantry also benefits from this food collection. They purchase much of their food from the Ohio Food Bank but many items have been unavailable. Canned soup, canned fruit, canned chili and pasta is always needed.

Both of these facilities always need toilet paper and boxes of cereal.

Last month our collection was overwhelming and we thank you for your generous hearts. Our requests always exceed our expectations and we sincerely thank you.

God bless you for assisting us in our SVDP mission. If you have any questions regarding SVDP, please contact Jane Nieman at 614-794-9605. Thank you.

JOIN Special Collection

Joint Organization for Inner-city Needs, JOIN, is an agency of the Diocese's Catholic Charities Office, located at 578 E Main St. in downtown Columbus. Sharing God's love and word through the assistance provided to our brothers and sisters is our daily aspiration.

Because of the generosity, throughout our Diocese, JOIN is able to help our neighbors with their essential needs such as food, personal care, household items and diapers. We can also assist with more complicated issues such as prescriptions, utilities, birth certificates and transportation.

The Ash Wednesday collection of your church and others, is instrumental in our mission to serve our neighbors with these various needs and more. All donations go directly to improve the quality of life for those we serve. It is a modest but significant way to begin Lent, for you and the community.

On behalf of all of us here at JOIN, and from the neighbors we serve, thank you for all you do through your ministries that serve our brothers and sisters. You are always welcome to visit JOIN or feel free to call or email me, Lisa Keita, director of JOIN, any time 614-241-2530 or lkeita@columbuscatholic.org.

God bless you with His grace and Peace!

Reflecting on the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 4, 2024

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7; Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23; Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus was in the home of Simon Peter whose mother-in-law He had just cured. "The whole town gathered at the door" when evening came. This was Jesus' first time being in Capernaum after beginning His public ministry, and already people were flocking to Him in droves. The next morning, Jesus got up before dawn and went away alone to pray. Soon, some of the disciples found Him and told Him that, once again, the whole town was looking for Him.

The excitement was great. So many were amazed. And their amazement at Jesus was not simply a form of curiosity. It was an amazement fueled by faith, which is why Jesus was able to perform so many miracles there. The people quickly realized that Jesus was the One of Whom the prophets of old had spoken. He was the Messiah, and the people gave Him their full attention. This is a good image for us to ponder. As you think of the crowds and their unwavering desire to be near our Lord, consider your own desires pertaining to God. Do you regularly find yourself consumed with a desire to find our Lord, to be with Him, to listen to Him and to receive His grace and mercy? Or are you tempted to see Jesus and the practice of your faith as boring and uninteresting? One of the unfortunate effects of modern technology is that we easily become fascinated by and intrigued with many superficial things. Perhaps it's the latest short video on a mobile app, or the latest episode of a favorite television series, or a new post by a friend on social media. There are many things today that compete for our attention, intrigue us and even amaze us. Is Jesus one of those things in your life?

In our modern world of constant stimulation and entertainment, we need to understand the difference between being amazed at the latest pop trend and being amazed by the grace and divine actions of our Lord. When we come face-to-face with the power of God in our lives, we will be amazed in a way that fulfills and satisfies us on the deepest level. It will be a spiritual amazement, which is a gift of the Holy Spirit.

And the satisfaction we receive from this form of amazement is transforming, deep and sustaining. But when we turn to lesser and more sensory "amazements" common within our world today, we will find that they last only for a moment, and we are quickly left dry and wanting for more.

Reflect, today, upon the people in today's Gospel who were so enthralled by Jesus that they continually sought Him out. Consider their excitement, their hope and their genuine joy at their discovery of the Messiah. As you think about them, consider whether you share in their excitement about Jesus. If that excitement is lacking, recommit yourself to seeking out our Lord. And where you see that excitement present, rejoice and give glory to God.

Most glorious Lord, Your love and mercy are truly amazing. Please help me to continually see this in my life and to continually become enthralled by Your presence in my life. May I run to You always, giving You my full attention and love. Jesus, I trust in You.
