Choir Anthem Lyrics

Offertory Anthem – Surely He Has Borne Griefs

Surely He has borne our griefs! Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, carried our sorrows. Surely He was wounded for us, bruised for our iniquities, for our iniquities!

The Chastisement of our peace fell upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed.

Surely He has borne our griefs . . .

Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and yet He opened not His mouth

Surely He has borne our griefs . . .

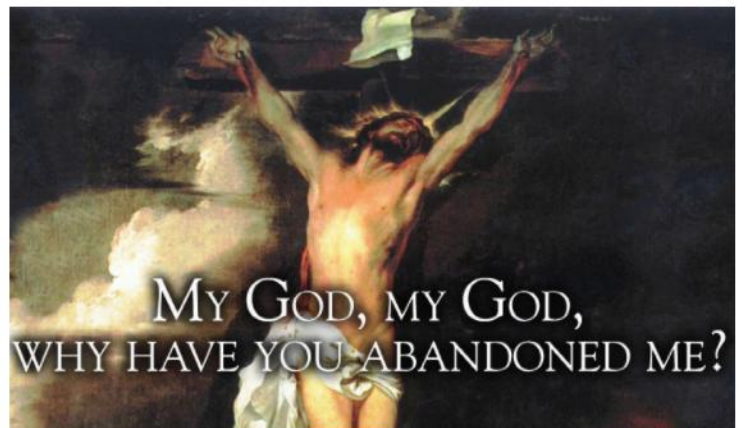

Ah, holy Jesus, how have You offended, that mortal judgement has on You descended? By foes derided, by Your own rejected, O most afflicted!

Surely He has borne our griefs . . .

Post Communion Anthem – Crucifixus

Crucifixus etiam pro nobis sub Pontio Pilato: Passus, et sepultus est.

He was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate: He suffered and was buried.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Reconciliation Monday:

Confessions will be heard in the Church on the Diocesan-wide "Reconciliation Monday" on Monday, March 25 from 7:00 – 9:00 PM.

Chrism Mass:

At 3:30 PM on Tuesday, March 26, we will be hosting the Chrism Mass. The priests, deacons, seminarians, and religious of the diocese will be at the Mass, celebrated by the Most Rev. Earl K. Fernandes. It is at the Chrism Mass that all three oils, the oil of catechumens (oleum catechumenorum or oleum sanctorum), the oil of the infirm (oleum infirmorum) and holy chrism (sacrum chrisma) – which will be used in the administration of the sacraments throughout the diocese for the year, are blessed. The faithful of the Diocese of Columbus are invited to attend.

Divine Mercy Novena:

On Good Friday, March 29, we will begin the annual Divine Mercy Novena which runs for nine days and will culminate with Divine Mercy Sunday (April 7, the Sunday after Easter Sunday). Each of the nine days of the Novena has a special intention and can be found on pages 12 and 13.

Parish Mission:

What an absolutely incredible Parish Mission we had this past week! I am so very grateful that Father Pawel came all the way from Rome to present his talks on the Eucharist. You can watch all of three talks and learn how to support worldwide evangelization and support of Christian culture through the media at stpacc.org/parish-mission

Our Sunday Offering:

I want to sincerely thank the very many who regularly give of their time, talent, and financial support to our parish. WeShare Online Giving is a secure, and convenient platform. Just text stpaulohio to the number 800-950-9952 or go online to www.stpacc.org/donate. If you have any questions about your parish offertory or WeShare, please contact Parish Accountant Deb Hawking at either dhawking@stpacc.org or 614-882-2109 ext. 229.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Wilson

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Holiest Week

Beginning today, as Catholics, we embark upon the holiest week in the liturgical calendar (and the busiest). Today, we gather on this blessed Palm Sunday, marking the triumphant entry of our Lord Jesus Christ into Jerusalem. As we reflect upon this significant moment in our faith, let us open our hearts to the profound message embedded within the waving palms and joyful cries of "Hosanna!"

Palm Sunday is a poignant reminder of the humility and majesty of our Savior. He, who rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, welcomed by the adoration of the crowds, exemplifies the paradoxical nature of divine kingship. In a world enamored by power and prestige, Jesus Christ redefines what it means to reign, teaching us that true greatness is found in service and sacrificial love.

The palm branches waved by the crowds symbolize adoration and acknowledgment of Jesus' authority and sovereignty. They serve as a tangible expression of our longing for salvation and deliverance. Just as the people of Jerusalem welcomed Jesus with open arms, let us welcome Him into our souls, allowing His love to transform us from within. But even as we journey towards the darkness of Good Friday, we do so with the assurance of hope. The cross that awaits Jesus is not the end of the story; it is the prelude to the triumph of Easter morning. As we accompany Jesus on His journey to Calvary, let us do so with hearts filled with faith and eyes fixed on the promise of resurrection.

As we gather in prayer during this sacred time, we embark on a journey of profound significance—the Triduum—the three holiest days in the Christian calendar. These days, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday invite us to enter into the heart of our faith, contemplate the mystery of redemption, and embrace the transformative power of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

On Maundy Thursday, we commemorate the Last Supper, where Jesus, in an act of profound humility, washed His disciples' feet and instituted the sacrament of the Eucharist. In this simple yet profound gesture, Jesus exemplified the essence of servant leadership, teaching us to love one another as He has loved us. As we partake in the Eucharist, let us remember the sacrificial love of our Lord, who offers Himself as spiritual nourishment, sustaining us on our faith journey. Holy Thursday also serves as a poignant reminder of the agony that awaited Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane. As He prayed in anguish, sweating drops of blood, He submitted to the will of His Father, willingly accepting the path that lay before Him – a path that would ultimately lead to the cross.

Good Friday, perhaps the most solemn day of the Triduum, invites us to journey with Jesus along the way of the cross. As we reflect on the agonizing hours of His crucifixion, we are confronted with the harsh realities of human sin and suffering. Yet, amid darkness, we find hope in the profound mystery of God's love. For it is on the cross that Jesus, in His ultimate act of selflessness, bore the weight of our sins, offering Himself a perfect sacrifice for our salvation. Let us gaze upon the cross with reverence and gratitude, recognizing it as the source of our redemption and the symbol of God's unfathomable love.

Holy Saturday, a day most overlooked by the faithful, is a day of silence and waiting, inviting us to enter the tomb's mystery. As we contemplate the lifeless body of Jesus lying in the tomb, we are reminded of the depths of His solidarity with humanity. In this silence, God is dead. In His death, Jesus descended into the darkness of the grave, sharing in our mortality and offering us the hope of new life. Holy Saturday teaches us the profound lesson of trust and patience as we await the dawn of Easter when death will be conquered, and Christ will rise victorious.

With its rich tapestry of liturgical celebrations and sacred rituals, the Triduum offers us a unique opportunity to draw closer to the heart of our faith. It is a time of reflection, repentance, and renewal—a spiritual journey that culminates in the glorious resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday.

As we immerse ourselves in the mysteries of the Triduum, may we be transformed by God's grace and be filled with gratitude for the gift of salvation. Let us walk this sacred path with humility and reverence, entrusting ourselves to the loving embrace of our Savior, who has conquered sin and death and promised eternal life.

There are so many more theological nuances in Holy Week that go beyond the scope of this article. I suggest that you read Pope Benedict XVI's Jesus of Nazareth, Holy Week. May the Triduum be a time of profound encounter with the living God as we journey together toward the joy of Easter morning.

Thank You!

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Tom Kurtz of Kurtz Bros. Mulch and Soils for the incredibly generous donation of 150 cubic yards of mulch to St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church. For the second consecutive year, their kindness has not only enhanced the beauty of our church grounds but has also embodied the spirit of community and giving that we hold dear. This donation helps us maintain a welcoming and beautiful space for all who come to worship Our Lord, Jesus Christ. We are truly blessed by this act of generosity and wish to express our deepest appreciation to Kurtz Bros. Mulch and Soils for their continued support and for helping us keep our church grounds in pristine condition."

(Please pray for each of these daily intentions.)

Universal Intention:

For all mankind, especially sinners, to be immersed in the ocean of our Lord's mercy.

St. Paul Intention:

For all souls affected by illness, injury or disease, and for those who have died. For those parishioners who serve others as doctors, nurses, medical support, and first responders.

Day 2
March 30
Holy Saturday
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For the souls of all priests and religious, that they would be immersed in the unfathomable mercy of Jesus.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For our pastor, Fr. Wilson, and our Parochial Vicars, Fr. Olvera, Fr. Gwinner, and Fr. Antony Varghese. For all deacons, seminarians, and the Daughters of Holy Mary of the Heart of Jesus who support our parish and school.

Day 3
Mar. 31
Easter Sunday
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For all devout and faithful souls, that they would be immersed in the ocean of mercy of Our Lord.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For all families and members of our St. Paul Parish community, all ministries that support and provide assistance to the single, married, and widowed in our parish.

Day 4
April 1
Easter Monday
within the
Octave of Easter
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For those who do not believe in God and for those who do not yet know Jesus, that they be immersed in the ocean of Our Lord's mercy.

St. Paul Parish Intention

For all men and women of our St. Paul community, and for all men's and women's ministries that serve, support, and provide assistance to parishioners.

Day 5
April 2
Tuesday
within the
Octave of Easter
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For those souls who have separated themselves from the Catholic Church, that they would be immersed in the ocean of Christ's mercy and return to the Church.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For all outreach ministries and parish members who serve, promote, and extend the mercy of God to everyone within our parish.

Day 6
April 3
Wednesday
within the
Octave of Easter
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For the meek and humble souls of the little children, that they would be immersed in the ocean of Our Lord's mercy.

Universal Intention:

For the souls who venerate my mercy and glorify Divine Mercy, that they may be immersed in the mercy of God.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For all staff at St. Paul Parish, all liturgical and prayer ministries, and parishioners, and prayer groups at St. Paul Parish.

Day 8
April 5
Friday
within the
Octave of Easter
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For all souls who are detained in purgatory, that they would be immersed in the abyss of Our Lord's mercy.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For all souls from our St. Paul Parish community who have passed on to eternal life. May they rest in peace and may perpetual light shine upon them.

Day 9
April 6
Saturday
within the
Octave of Easter
3:00 PM

Universal Intention:

For all souls who have become lukewarm, that they may be immersed in the mercy of God.

St. Paul Parish Intention:

For the continued renewal of our parish, and continued growth in our mission to be "Inspired by St. Paul, Centered on Christ, and Called to Holiness."

St. Paul Bereavement Support Group

The Bereavement Ministry of St. Paul is sponsoring a support group for anyone grieving the loss of a loved one. Recognizing that grief has no timelines, the group is open to anyone who would like the mutual support of others, regardless of when their loved one passed. The group will meet on Six (6) Wednesday evenings, April 17-May 22 from 7 to 9 pm in Room 2 on the lower level of the church (accessible by elevator). Pre-registration is required; space is limited. Please call one of the facilitators listed here for more information and/or to register: Lisa at 317-809-1151 or Sharon at 614-329-9010

Reflecting on the Gospel for Palm Sunday, March 24, 2024

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7; Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11; Gospel: Mark 14:1-15:47

Throughout Jesus' life, He traveled to Jerusalem many times. As a child, He was presented in the Temple. At age twelve, He was found teaching the teachers of the Law in the Temple. As He grew, He made regular pilgrimages to the Temple. During His temptation in the desert, the devil took Him to the pinnacle of the Temple. In the Gospels, we read of at least four different trips to the Temple during Jesus' public ministry. However, the trip to Jerusalem that we commemorate today was unlike any other. As Jesus entered Jerusalem this time, His life was already being sought by the religious leaders. Despite that fact, Jesus entered Jerusalem with great solemnity and with much attention. "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" was the cry by the crowd as Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey while palm branches and cloaks were strewn before Him.

Though this was the most fitting way for the people of faith to welcome their King, their warm welcome, their cries "Hosanna!" and their excitement were more beneficial to them than they were to Jesus. Jesus is God. He has no need of our praise and honor. But Jesus came to us to invite us to praise, honor and worship Him because it is good for us. We need to praise Him. This is what we are made for. This leads to the fulfillment of our lives.

As we begin Holy Week, try to spend time with this image of the people honoring our Lord with much enthusiasm. This is an image depicting who we must become. As we continue through this Holy Week, we must become increasingly aware of the God to Whom we offer our praise and worship. He is a God Who lowered Himself in the eyes of all, took on the form of a slave, permitted Himself to be labeled as a grave sinner, was rejected, beaten and killed. This week, especially, we worship the suffering Christ. We worship a Man Who was arrested and cruelly treated. We worship a Man who was hated and mistreated in the worst way possible.

Our wholehearted worship of the suffering Christ is an important act to fulfill. In many ways, it is easier to worship God as He is in Heaven on His glorious throne. When we ponder the myriads of angels gathered around Him, the saints of all time bowing to the ground and glory and splendor radiating from His face, worship seems right. To worship a Man accused of being a criminal and suffering capital punishment while enduring the hatred of many is more difficult to comprehend. But if we are able to see Jesus through the eyes of faith and peer through the hatred and lies that surrounded Him, then we will be in awe of the humility of our God Who came to us this way.

Our worship of the suffering Christ also invites us to share in His virtue as He endured all that was inflicted upon Him. When we worship the humiliated Christ, our humiliations take on new power and meaning. When we worship the suffering Christ, our sufferings are elevated to share in His redemption. When we worship the rejected, despised and persecuted Christ, any ways that we share in these hardships are transformed.

Reflect, today, upon the God Whom you worship this Holy Week. Do not shy away from all that Jesus endured. Gaze at His rejection and passion. Look at the hatred He endured. As you do, see not only your glorious God, see also the remedy for all your ills. God descended to us in this most humble form so that He could meet us where we are at and raise us to new life with Him.

My suffering Lord, I worship You and praise You with all my heart. As You entered Jerusalem for the Passover, You intended to give new power to that celebration by becoming the New and Eternal Paschal Lamb. May I always worship You Who suffered for me and give to You all that I endure in life to be transformed by Your saving act. Jesus, I trust in You.
