The Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

He is Risen! Happy Easter!

We have come to the central event of our faith, the event that is the basis of all we believe. As our patron St. Paul so powerfully wrote: "If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain." (1 Cor 15:14) The Catechism teaches: "The Resurrection above all constitutes the confirmation of all Christ's works and teachings. All truths, even those most inaccessible to human reason, find their justification in Christ by his Resurrection has given the definitive proof of his divine authority, which he had promised." (CCC 652) On behalf of our priests, deacons, and dedicated staff at Saint Paul the Apostle Parish, I wish all of you and your families a most joyful Easter!

Welcome Home!

Whether this is your first time here, or your first time in a long time, I'm happy you're here. If you have been considering coming back to the Catholic Church, this bulletin was made for you. It also highlights many of our upcoming events, programs, and various ministries to help you in enriching your faith and growing in your relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Steubenville Youth Conference:

Registration for our high school summer trip is open! Rising 9th graders through graduating seniors will have the opportunity to spend the weekend growing in relationship with the Lord and one another. I personally benefitted from this conference when I was in high school and I am happy to share the opportunity with our youth. I encourage grandparents to gift their high school grandchildren the opportunity to go to the conference. You can learn more about the conference at stpacc.org/steubenville.

5 Reasons to Come Home

If you've been away from the Church, we're glad you're here, and we'd like to invite you to come home. God is calling you to be a part of His universal family.

5. We Hunger for Meaning and Purpose in Our Lives

We all want answers to why we are here and what we were made for. The Catholic Church has the answer. God made us to know, love, and serve Him in this world, so we can be with Him forever in heaven. The Catholic Church helps us to fulfill this purpose that God has for all of us. And when we live out God's will for us, we find extreme joy and peace in life.

4. We Need God's Forgiveness and Healing for Our Failings and God's Mercy to Help Us Become Better People

Perhaps you've been carrying around deep spiritual wounds or painful sins that have burdened you for years. The Catholic Church gives us a way to bring our faults, failings, and hurts before God in the Sacrament of Confession, so He can take the yoke off our shoulders and bring us healing and peace, giving us a "new start" every time we need it.

3. Our Families Need to be Built on a Strong Foundation of Faith and We Need to Live in Community With Others

You may have heard the phrase "a family that prays together stays together." It is true! Many studies—and experience—have shown that families who live out their faith together are stronger and happier. If you want to give your children the greatest treasure in the world, give them the gift of faith. The Church also provides us with a community of faith-filled friends in which we can find support and strength for our life's journey.

2. The Catholic Church Has the Sacraments - And We Especially Long for the Eucharist

It is in the Catholic Church that you experience the fullness of the seven sacraments, which Christ bestows on His Church to help fill us with grace to draw us closer to God. As Catholics, we have the ultimate privilege of receiving Christ in the most personal way possible—in the Holy Eucharist. Countless Catholics have returned to or entered the Church because of their longing for Jesus in the Eucharist. He longs to feed us with Himself!

1. Catholicism is True!

The only really good reason to believe something is because it is true, and Catholicism is true! The Catholic Church is the one Church established by Christ 2,000 years ago (Matt 16:18). It is the Church to which God calls all of His universal family to belong. The Catholic Church offers us deep union with Christ through the Scripture, Sacraments, prayer, and community.

Catholics Come Home is a great resource for Catholics who are considering returning to a regular practice of the faith and can be accessed at www.catholicscomehome.org/.

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

Why Does It Keep Changing?

First and foremost, I want to wish you and your family a very happy and blessed Easter Season. I pray that this may be a time of rejoicing in the risen Lord. As we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, a major question always seems to arise: Why does the date of Easter change every year? This is a great question and one that would expand the scope of this article. However, I would like to give a little background and history of the ever-changing holiday.

In the early centuries of Christianity, churches in different parts of the world celebrated Easter at different times and in various ways. Some churches, especially those with direct Jewish roots, celebrated Easter on the day of Passover, tying the feast of the Pascha to the Last Supper and centering the feast of the resurrection on that day — they said this was the custom since the time of the apostles. This practice eventually came to be called Quartodecimanism, meaning fourteenth, as it was the name given to the practice of celebrating Easter on the 14th of Nisan (Jewish month of Spring).

However, other churches, including the Diocese of Rome, thought the celebration of Easter should be on Sunday, and the date should not necessarily be tied directly to Passover. Eventually, that disagreement got severe, leading to attempts to excommunicate the bishops who led the Quartodecimanist dioceses. The controversy nearly led to schism. And it was complicated; scholars are still debating the exact contours of the disagreement.

In 325, the Council of Nicea decided the whole Church needed to standardize the date for Easter. Rome won that debate in a certain sense: Nicea agreed that the Roman way of calculating Easter's date should be used everywhere. It took a few centuries before things were entirely worked out. Different Christian churches disagree strongly with the way that history unfolded. Eventually, however, it became standard among Christians that Easter should be celebrated:

- On the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox.
- After Passover.

The vernal equinox is when day and night are the same length. From that point on, the days begin getting longer than the nights. The Church has mostly considered it a fixed date (March 21, for most people). This calculation method, known as the Gregorian lunar calendar, sets Easter as the first Sunday after the first full moon following the vernal equinox. This system ensures that Easter always falls between March 22 and April 25, aligning it with the rebirth of nature in the springtime.

In contemplating the changing date of Easter, we are invited to reflect on the dynamic nature of time itself. Time, in its essence, is not a static construct but rather a fluid continuum, ever-flowing and evolving. It reminds us of earthly matters' impermanence and divine truths' constancy. Each year, as Easter approaches, we are called to embrace this temporal variability, recognizing it as a testament to the enduring nature of our faith amidst the changing tides of the world.

Moreover, the fluctuating date of Easter serves as a poignant reminder of the rich tapestry of traditions that encompass our faith. Just as the date of Easter evolves with each passing year, so does our understanding of God's love and grace. Our faith is not bound by rigid conventions but instead thrives in the vibrant diversity of human experience. As we celebrate Easter each year, we are reminded of the multifaceted nature of our beliefs and the myriad ways they manifest in our lives.

In embracing the changing date of Easter, we are called to deepen our spiritual journey and draw closer to the heart of our faith. Let us use this opportunity to reflect on the timeless message of Easter — the triumph of light over darkness, of hope over despair. May the variability of Easter remind us of the eternal truth of God's love, ever-present and unwavering, guiding us through the changing seasons of life.

As we continue our pilgrimage of faith, let us rejoice in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and the promise of redemption it brings.

May the changing date of Easter serve as a beacon of hope, illuminating our path and leading us ever closer to the divine. Happy Easter!

St. Vincent de Paul Update

The members of St. Paul, St. Vincent de Paul Society wish all of our parishioners and visitors a Happy and Blessed Easter! May the joy of our risen Lord fill your hearts during this Easter Season.

Over the past few weeks, we have been quite busy making home visits and assisting our neighbors in need. Rents, mortgages and utility costs are on the rise and many people are seeking aid in making these payments. As a conference we feel so blessed. Your financial donations allow us to continue the St. Vincent de Paul mission by assisting those in need. Again, thank you for your prayers and your generosity.

This conference has just recently celebrated our 20th year anniversary. In 2004 Fr. Charlie Klinger gathered interested parishioners and began our SVDP conference. Many of our current members answered that call 20 years ago and are still very active today. Personally, I want to thank these members, who have regularly given so generously of their time and talents over the years. These Vincentians and all of our members are dedicated to the SVDP mission.

The weekend of April 13 and 14 we will be having our monthly pantry collection. Please bring your food items to the narthex of the church on Saturday and Sunday and place in blue bins. As always, we need cans of fruit, vegetables and soup. Packs of snack crackers, large bags of cookies, pretzels, and crackers. Toilet paper, juice boxes, canned meats and peanut butter. Thank you for participating.

The weekend of May 4 and 5 the SVDP Thrift Store Truck will be at St. Paul. So, if you happen to be cleaning out basements or closets, please keep this in mind. More details soon.

God bless.

Jane Nieman, SVDP President, stpacc.org/svdp

Father Olvera will be joining us to kick off our series on Catholic Apologetics. Father will answer these questions and lay a foundation to help us become better defenders of our faith when confronted with objections and opposition.

After the presentation and a brief group discussion, we will move to the church to finish our evening with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
