He is Risen! Happy Easter!

I give thanks to God for the beautiful Easter Masses at St. Paul the Apostle. The Easter Vigil Mass was especially beautiful with 67 people entering the Catholic Church, starting with an epic blazing fire. Each of these amazing 67 people are called by name and have a special story that has led them to Christ and to the full Communion of the Catholic Church. Thanks to our musicians, ushers, greeters, lectors, extraordinary ministers of holy communion, altar servers, producers, sacristans, priests, deacons, church cleaners, maintenance staff, and office staff! Many dedicated parishioners came together to serve our brothers and sisters in Christ and on behalf of those who attended our services I offer my sincere thanks!

Divine Mercy Sunday:

Established by Pope Saint John Paul II on April 30, 2000, Divine Mercy Sunday always falls on the Second Sunday of Easter. At that Mass he canonized Saint Faustina, the great apostle of Divine Mercy. The message of Divine Mercy is a powerful and moving way to grow closer to Christ. Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. Please join us for a special Divine Mercy Holy Hour at 3:00 PM Sunday in the church. See Page 9 of this bulletin for details.

Choir Anthem Lyrics

Offertory Anthem - Proclaim the Message

When he stood among us and spoke: "The peace I have, I give to you today. And in the power of the Spirit, forgive the sins of all." Blest are those who have not seen, yet have chosen to believe.

Refrain: Proclaim the message: "Behold, our Savior's risen!" Rejoice, again I say rejoice! For on the last day we shall rise again and see the face of God. Rejoice!

Praise be to the Father of life, and praise be to His Son Lord Jesus Christ, And praise be to the Holy Spirit, united Three-in-One. Preach the message of freedom, raise your voices in song! refrain

Canticle of Praise - This Joyful Eastertide

This joyful Eastertide away with sin and sorrow!
My love, the Crucified, has sprung to life this morrow.

Refrain: Had Christ, who once was slain, not burst his three-day prison, our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen!

My flesh in hope shall rest and for a season slumber till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number. refrain

Death's flood has lost its chill since Jesus crossed the river.
 Lover of souls, from ill my passing soul deliver. refrain

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

Keep Vigil, or Anticipate?

Liturgical time provides a framework for the Church's worship and spiritual practices, guiding us through the various seasons of the Christian life and helping us to deepen our relationship with God and each other. It emphasizes the timeless truths of the Christian faith while also connecting us to the historical events that shaped our identity as followers of Christ. Liturgical time is a cyclical and sacred concept that organizes the worship and spiritual life around key events in the life of Christ and the Church. Growing up, my family always attended the 4:00 pm Mass on Saturdays. Everyone I encountered called this Mass the "Sunday Vigil Mass." "Vigil" is a term that is used quite often when speaking about liturgical time. However, have you ever heard the word "anticipated?" Would you believe me if I told you the 4:00 pm Mass I attended growing up was the Anticipated Mass for Sunday? What is the difference between "vigil" and "anticipated?"

When we talk of "Vigil Masses" today, we usually mean Masses of Sunday that are celebrated on the preceding Saturday night. But strictly speaking, this is an improper use of the term "Vigil Mass." A Saturday evening Mass of the following Sunday is liturgically identical to the Mass of the Sunday itself and is appropriately called an "anticipated Mass." When you come to the 4:00 pm Mass, you hear the same prayers and readings that someone who attends the 10:00 am Mass on Sunday will hear. Because of this, the Mass on Saturday is called "Anticipated."

So what is a "Vigil Mass?" A few solemnities are endowed with their own Vigil Mass, which will be used on the evening of the preceding day if an evening Mass is celebrated. The readings and prayers of such Vigil Masses differ from the texts in the Masses to be celebrated on the day itself.

For example, if you go to Mass on Christmas Eve, you will hear different prayers and readings than someone who goes on Christmas Day will hear. This is because Christmas has its own Vigil Mass.

I can tell you might be confused. Let me confuse you even more. Remember when I said that Sundays, as such, have no Vigil Masses? Well, I was right and wrong. There are two Solemnities that are always on Sundays that have their own Vigil Mass. These are Easter and Pentecost. Also, only in the Dioceses of the United States is The Epiphany of the Lord always on the Sunday between 2 January and 8 January. In other countries, this Solemnity is on 6 January. So, what are the other Solemnities that have their own Vigil? They are The Ascension of the Lord, The Nativity of St. John the Baptist, Ss. Peter & Paul, The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and The Nativity of the Lord.

Liturgical time is unlike the time of the world, which is fleeting and often marked by busyness and distraction. Instead, it is a sacred time set apart for an encounter with the divine. In the liturgical year, we are called to enter the timeless reality of God's saving love, immerse ourselves in Christ's life, and allow these mysteries to transform our lives. Let us embrace the gift of liturgical time with gratitude and reverence. Let us be drawn more deeply into the mystery of God's love revealed to us in Christ Jesus. Therefore, let us keep "vigil" and "anticipate" as we journey together toward the fullness of life in God's kingdom.

ST. PAUL'S YOUNG ADULTS

Theology Night

Wednesday, April 10th – 7:00 p.m.

What is Apologetics? Why do we do it? Do we even need it?

Father Olvera will be joining us to kick off our series on Catholic Apologetics. Father will answer these questions and lay a foundation to help us become better defenders of our faith when confronted with objections and opposition.

After the presentation and a brief group discussion, we will move to the church to finish our evening with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Want to know more about upcoming events with the St. Paul Young Adults? Sign up to receive our weekly Flocknote at <https://stpaultheapostlechurch2.flocknote.com/youngadults> or text "SPYA" to 84576.

Thank You From Deacon Mickey

My dear family and friends.

I wish to thank you all for such a great response to the St. Gabriel Radio Spring Fundraiser in my name. Because of your donations, my team came in 2nd place; only one point from winning the Gold.

It was such a pleasure to be asked to represent St. Paul Parish in this competition of the Deacons in our Diocese, knowing that 100% of all donations are used to sustain the mission of St. Gabriel, AM 820 radio. Please remember St. Gabriel Radio, AM 820, as they educate and evangelize God's children throughout Ohio. Again, thanks and bless you all.

CONNECTING THE WORD OF GOD TO OUR LIVES

From www.mycatholic.life

Reflecting on the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Easter, April 7, 2024

First Reading: Acts 4:32-35; Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31

Saint Faustina writes in her Diary:

"My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the First Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy" (Diary #699).

What will it be like to contemplate the love and mercy of God for all eternity? To some, this might not at first seem that appealing. Won't it become boring if all we do for all eternity is contemplate God's mercy? If that is a question that resonates with you, then the reason this idea initially lacks appeal is because you cannot fathom how fulfilling and glorious this will be. Jesus said, "My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity."

God willed that this Sunday, the eighth day of the Octave of Easter, be celebrated as the Feast of Mercy. By placing this Feast on the last day of the Octave of Easter, God is telling us that the message of this Feast reveals the ultimate purpose of our lives. Easter is the culmination of the perfect plan of redemption. And Divine Mercy Sunday is the culmination of that perfect plan. Therefore, nothing is more important than trying to understand the message this Feast presents. By analogy, if you were given a new car but never drove it, the car would be of no use. Or if you won the lottery and the money simply sat in your account unused, what's the benefit? Or if you were gravely ill and were given a medicine that would cure that illness but you never took it, then you would remain ill. So also, if we believe in the death and resurrection of Jesus, but never allow the Mercy that is given by that act to transform us, then we have missed the point. The Divine Mercy is the point of life. It's the only thing worth seeking. It's the only source of satisfaction and fulfillment. It's the only cure for our ills. It's the only source of true riches. In three short words: It Is Everything!

When Jesus says that our eternity will be spent contemplating His Mercy, He doesn't only mean that this is something we will do after we die. True, the fullness of the revelation of His Mercy will be set before us when we enter into the Beatific Vision and contemplate God forever. But "eternity" includes today. It includes the here and now. Therefore, our contemplation of The Divine Mercy must be the single most important goal in our life today. When it is, everything else in life will fall into place in support of this goal.

In order to make the contemplation of The Divine Mercy the most important goal of your life, you must begin to understand it. That's why we were given this special day, this most solemn Feast of Mercy. Therefore, use this day as an opportunity to deepen your contemplation of this Gift. Begin by reading about God's Mercy as it was revealed to us through Saint Faustina. Try to spend time reading Jesus' words, His explanations, descriptions and revelations about His Mercy. As you do, if you find that it remains incomprehensible, don't worry. It is incomprehensible! However, since Jesus promised us that our eternity would be spent in contemplation of His Mercy, then we must believe that the more deeply we enter into that contemplation now, the more glorious our lives will become. If we can truly taste of this Mercy, gain a small glimpse of its grandeur, and comprehend even a small aspect of its meaning, then we will truly find much satisfaction in this endeavor.

Reflect, today, upon The Divine Mercy. As you do, humble yourself through prayer by admitting to God and to yourself that His Mercy is beyond what you will ever comprehend. Do this in prayer. Reading about God's Mercy is important, but it will only be through prayer that we begin our contemplation. And it will only be through this contemplation that we will begin to live the central purpose of our lives.

Readings for each day and links to daily reflections can be found at stpacc.org/readings
