Offertory Anthem (10:00 Mass)

Cantate Domino

Music: Giuseppe Pitoni (1657-1743)
Text: Psalm 149:1-2

(Translation)
Sing to the Lord, sing to the Lord a new song.
Let the assembly of saints praise him.
Let Israel rejoice in He who made them,
and the people of Zion rejoice in their King.

Communion Anthem (10:00 Mass)

Psalm 121 Music: Deborah Govenor (b. 1954)

I lift my eyes unto the hills
from where is my help to come?
My help comes from the Lord
who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot to be moved;
He who keeps you will not slumber nor sleep;
He who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper,
the Lord is your shade on your right hand,
The sun shall not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil;
He will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth, forevermore. Amen.

Want to give your children a Catholic education? Discover our St. Paul Catholic School (preschool and grades K-8) dedicated to teaching, living, and learning in the light of Christ. stpaulk-8.org

Parents of our young children, may we suggest...

- Relax! God put the wiggle in children; don't feel you must suppress it in God's house. All are welcome!
- Sit toward the front, where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what's happening at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of others' heads.
- Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priest, altar servers, choir, etc.
- Sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses. Children learn by copying you.
- If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."
- Remember that how we welcome children in church directly affects their responses to the church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

To other members of our parish:

- The presence of children is a gift to the church, and they are a reminder that our parish is growing!
- Please welcome our children and encourage their parents with a smile. If you see a parent struggling, please offer to help them!

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

WHY WON'T THEY SIT STILL & BE QUIET?

As a native of the Diocese of Youngstown, I have witnessed first-hand the number of parishes closing, merging, changing names, etc., due to a decline in parishioners. It is a sad reality for many parishes. When a parish has more funerals than baptisms, there is a problem. However, this unfortunate reality can be fixed. It will take all of us to do it, but I know it can be done. The only way that we will keep our church doors from closing in the future (St. Paul included, we are not immune) is to welcome young families, especially those with young children.

If you are a parent of young children, I do not have to tell you that bringing them to Mass is a monumental task. Getting out the door to get to Mass is an even larger task. You must get yourself ready for Mass, then chase your kids around the house to get them dressed, feed them so that they do not become "hangry" during the homily, etc. Then, once you finally get to Mass (probably right as the priest is walking in), you need to find the perfect seat where you are at the end of the pew in case Junior needs to go to the bathroom because he didn't go at home after you told him 45 times to go before you left.

Attending Mass with young ones is a challenge. The restlessness, the fidgeting, the occasional whispers - these are moments that might test our patience and concentration during the sacred liturgy. However, we must not lose sight of the profound importance of having children present here, in this sacred space. Remember, Jesus welcomed all the children. He reprimanded his apostles for keeping them away. He did not say, "only bring me the quiet children who can sit still." No, he welcomed all children (without behavior requirements). We, too, must welcome children and their parents and thank them for bringing their children to Mass.

Jesus urges us to be like them and embrace their innocence, curiosity, and unguarded faith. When children attend Mass, we allow them to experience the love of God tangibly. They may not fully understand all that happens during the Mass, but their presence here is invaluable. It is an opportunity for them to witness the communal prayer, the rituals, and the Eucharistic celebration, laying the foundation for their spiritual journey.

As parents, grandparents, and guardians, we are the primary educators of our children in matters of faith. By bringing them to Mass, we provide an environment where they can encounter the living Christ. In this sacred assembly, they witness the reverence, the prayers, and the Word of God, which shapes their understanding of our Catholic beliefs and traditions.

Moreover, the presence of children enriches our faith community. Their joyful innocence, questions, and simple gestures remind us of the purity of heart and the genuine love Christ calls us to embody. Let us welcome them with open hearts, knowing their presence here is a blessing. I can personally tell you, there is nothing more disheartening than finally getting to Mass, finding a pew, and then having someone sitting around you get up and move, assuming for no other reason than you have young children (you know who you are...).

Yes, it can be challenging to manage their energy and attention during Mass, but let us view these moments as opportunities for growth - both for our children and for ourselves. We should engage them in conversation about the Gospel readings or the symbols and rituals they witness, guiding them gently in understanding the faith.

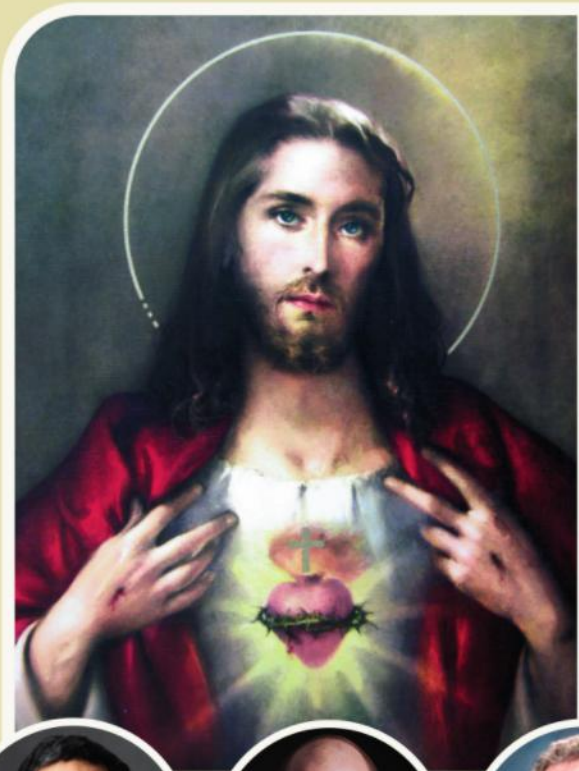

Let us strive to create a welcoming environment where children and parents feel at home in the house of the Lord. By doing this, families will continue to worship at St. Paul, and our doors will remain open for generations to come, unlike so many other parishes and dioceses. Remember the old saying, "if the Church isn't crying, it's dying."

40 DAYS FOR LIFE™

What an amazing turnout we had last Saturday for our St. Paul Fall 40 Days for Life vigil at Planned Parenthood! Over 50 were in attendance, standing up for the innocent unborn and praying for the conversion of heart of women and men considering abortion, along with clinic workers as well. That number is double our typical attendance. Of course, this glorious October weather we've been enjoying was helpful.

You know we were striking at Satan's heart based on the cacophony of insults we endured from passing cars, and especially from the two young women who pulled up to the curb and threw a soft drink and ice at the group, getting a few of us wet, including a wonderful little nun from an unknown order who joined us. One lady from Holy Family church told me after the vigil that she has attended many 40 DFL vigils but had never seen such a large turnout from one parish.

Only Our Lord knows how many hearts may have been touched by our presence and prayers while there. It's up to the Holy Spirit to take it from here, hopefully leading to some conversions and the saving of some babies. The national campaign announced last week that the 25,000th baby has now been saved by the campaign since its inception in 2007. Let's hope our efforts add to that number!

We will be in touch with you in several months regarding the Spring/Lenten 2025 campaign. Several photos are attached. Again, thanks again for your participation!

Lector Training

When Sacred Scripture is proclaimed in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel. Therefore, the readings from the Word of God are essential in the Mass.

Lectors are members of the parish who proclaim the Word of God during the liturgy. The ministry of Lector requires skill in public reading, knowledge of the principles of liturgy, and an understanding and love of the scriptures. Lectors should thoroughly prepare themselves to proclaim the Word of God through study, prayer, and practice.

Training for current and new Lectors will be held on Tuesday, November 12th at 7:00 PM in the Church. New books will be distributed at this training.
